Tract 111b

1223 Valentine Eyler apparently deeded the remainder of this tract to 1226 John Eyler, possibly a son, as the list of neighbors in the Hare deed indicates that John owned the remainder of this tract.

(See Tract #207 for subsequent history of Tract 111b)

Both sections of this tract may have passed through several hands, the deeds to the transactions never being recorded. By 1809 Andrew Rudisell and Thomas J. Hickley possessed the legal rights to both sections of this tract. They resurveyed, divided, and patented their respective acreage.

Eyler's Valley Chapel

Located 6 miles form Thurmont is perhaps the most unique church in America. Stepping back in time to 1857, Eyler's Valley Chapel is nestled in the Catoctin Mountains along a back road. The single-room Chapel is without electricity: 78 candles glow with light; a treadle organ provides the music; and the two gas heaters give warmth. But the most unique feature is the 20 worship services on the 11 nights prior to Christmas.

Map

Directions:

Subject: Oyler, Iler Family

Dear Morgan: In the late 20's through the earlier 40's the Oyler family had a family reunion. It was held yearly and up to 400 people attended. It was big news, articles were written in the Gettysburg Times newspaper and a lot of good times were held by all. At reunion 1933 songs were sung (God bless America, Love's old sweet sound and There's a long trail a winding.) Everybody stood and in union prayed the Lord's Prayer. The opening address of welcome was given by Zelma Kline, this was followed by two songs (Brighten the Corner and Keep the home fires burning.)The minutes of last years reunion was read by the secretary Charles O. Oyler and several ushers were then appointed to take up a collection while everybody joined in singing (My old Kentucky home) followed by a reading by Edna Kline.
The address of the afternoon was given by Reverend David S. Hafer of Phillipsburg, NJ and everybody joined in singing "Old Black Joe." The treasurer reported a collection of $10.01.
Election of officers followed resulting in the following. President Harvey Oyler of Altoona Pa., Vice President Melvin Oyler of Harrisburg Pa. Secretary Charles O. Oyler Harrisburg, PA Treasures S.G. Spangler Gettysburg, PA, Historian, Norbert Oyler, Assistant Historians, Mrs. Ella Strock Gettysburg and Joseph Oyler Waynesboro.

Expenses were as follows: $14.84 for mailing, coffee and peanuts. The park rental was $8.00. It was unanimously decided to hold the next year's reunion at Arendtsville Fair ground the first Thursday of August 1934. The event closed by singing "God be with you till we meet again" Benediction was pronounced By Rev. Hafer.

This is one of over thirty announcements I have and I thought you would like to know that the family knew were they were from and that they got together for over 20 years. It is a shame that we don't have a chance to do the same. They sure liked to sing a lot.
Cordially yours,
Jim Oyler

Hi Morgan

This bit of information was sent to Mom from a friend of hers. I haven't had a chance to check it out, been busy with Fred's retirement from "Ford Motor Company of Canada Ltd" after 37 full year there. His anniversary date was June 19th and he retired June 30, 2004.
Then a death of a dear old friend and now I've been busy with his funeral arrangements, plus we took a small holiday vacation and went to the French River area in Northern Ontario for a week .
Got started on the cemetery project, but things have slowed down right now.
Hope all is well with you

Morgan,

Here's another household census listing that connects to the EY line:

1910 Berks County, Pa. (Reading City)

832 Church Street, 219- 226-	Eiler, Charles F. , 45	1865	55487
	" Annie 36	1876	61243
	" William 21	1889	61250	57366
	" Violet 14	1896	61253
	" Edwin 17	1893	61251
	" Mamie 15	1895	61252
	" Mary 11	1899	61254
	" Blanche 9	1901

Charles F. Eiler is the same Charles listed on the William Eiler household from the 1870 Schuylkill County census. In 1910 Charles F. Eiler listed as a laborer at the Elec. Light Plant, son William a salesman at the Hardwares store,and son Edwin a laborer at the Steel Works. I appreciate the email and for checking about William & Rebecca's marriage. I'm researching about this "branch" of the Eiler family, and will send you updates as I document the information !

Yes, you are correct. Jakob (24767) and wife also had a daughter named Elizabeth (24774), and she is the Elizabeth named that married Emanuel Schaeffer.

Sarah Eiler, daughter of Henry (24808), Sarah that married Mr. DeLong .

Most of the other marriages fit nicely on the "charts". I don't see the Uhler/Shipman marriage in my family trees anywhere!.....

48783 61246 48784 61247

Daniel Eiler married Mrs. Kaufman. Elizabeth Wenrich was first married to John Kaufman.

61248

Adam (32706) and Mary Noecker had at least eleven children. daughter Sarah Eiler died in childhood. son George(32717) was deceased before his father Adam. Adam Eiler (32706) died late 1822 or Jan. 1823. The orphans court papers list eight children surviving in 1823; John, Jacob, Adam, Daniel, William, Rebecca , Maria and Elizabeth. I do not see these three children of Adam (32706) and Mary, on your file ...John, Sarah and Rebecca. Yes, you do have John (32708) in your records, you have him in ~~(UFO)~~ designated......Rebecca (must of also been known as POLLY) Eiler married Mr. Heisler and Maria (Mary 32716) was married to Charles W. Saylor.

Elizabeta, a minor child, (56676) must of died soon after her father's death. The other seven children continue to be listed in later estate papers. There is an inconsistency with Elisabeta's church record as listed Feb,. 1825, unless that church record is for another Eliasabeth, a possible daughter of another Adam Eiler (32709). Any comments !!?

"According to family records at the Wagnall's Library, Lithopolis, Fairfield County, Ohio, Lewis was the son of George Oyler of PA.. Lewis had a brother Samuel. Samuel T. Oyler, that brother, is my great grandfather. He was born 12 Oct 1832 in PA. The family lived a while in Maryland on the way to Ohio. Thus, Lewis' birthplace.

I have a copy of the handwritten record from Lithopolis, if you'd like one. From these family records, you have to sift out the information for accuracy - for instance, it says there was another brother Frank, with a daughter Belle. Wrong! That Frank was Frank Lee Oyler, Samuel T's son, and older brother of my grandmother, Clara Belle Oyler. He did have a daugther, Cora Belle.

61256 43638 61257

My biggest and most exciting find was in the records of Green Lawn Cemetery, Columbus, where Samuel T. is buried. On the cemetery card record, it says his parents were George Oyler and Martha (Carr) Oyler. I just read on the OYLER family page about Lewis that he was a carpenter. So was my Samuel T. and Frank Lee Oyler. Through Ancestry.com, I found a Frank Lee Oyler death in Florida in 1954. I phoned for the copy of the death certificate. Sure enough, it was that of my great uncle, age 85, who was a carpenter!

I live in California and travel east to do family research.

I hope to hear from you."

666 - HISTORY OF TUSCARAWAS COUNTY.

CHAPTER XVIII.

WARREN TOWNSHIP.

FORMATION-CHANGE OF BOUNDARIES-THE PIONEERS-INDIANS-TOPOGRAPHY ONE LEG CREEK- NEW CUMBERLAND - SCHOOLS - MILLS -JUSTICES OF THE PEACE.

WARREN TOWNSHIP was formed March 31, 1819, from all that part of Tuscarawas County included in Township 15, Range 7, and the west half of Township 14, Range 6. It was thus six miles in width north and south, and nine in length east and west. This land had previously formed a part of One Leg Township. When Carroll County was organized in 183'3, two-thirds of Warren Township, as then constituted, became the territory of the new county, leaving but eighteen square miles of the township in Tuscarawas County. This tract was too small to maintain an organization, and Warren must either acquire new territory or be dismembered. Through the efforts of Judge Israel Lappin and others, the Commissioners ceded to the shattered township a strip half a mile in width, two and one-half sections, from the eastern part of Fairfield, and one and a half sections from the north. east corner of Goshen. The original eighteen sections belong to the seven ranges; the first survey made in the State, and the four sections, afterward acquired, form a part of the United States Military District Congress land.

Subject: merger of family groups?

Morgan,

As I extract more family information, I expect the merging of other "nearby county" family groups with the ever expanding EY line is a greater possibility!

Another side note. I recalled the email about your assigning numbers and notice that you had Daniel & Phoebe as <61124 > and < 61125> with a question about the EW <57373>.

I see that you already had Adam's <32706 > daughter Sarah Eiler designated < 51847 >.

Also, Myrtel Eiler <61098> and Witman <61099> had at least three daughters Margaret Whitman , Gloria Whitman & Sophia and son Floyd Whitman.
61267 61268 61269 61270

Finally, Howard Rehrig <61122> & Elsie had children names ; Clayton, Robert and Howard,Jr! 61273
61271 61272
Thanks and take it easy!!
Bruce.

Subject: Eiler families

Morgan,

Thank you for the reply! I'm glad you are finding the information interesting. I would like to receive a current EY family descendancy narrative, by email from you, when you have that finished . Here is another significant update full of merges:

Daniel Eiler < 48783 > and wife Elizabeth < 51691 > had two children as follows; Fietta Eiler < 48922>, and Charles Eiler < 25361 >. I see you have Fietta in your file somewhere. Charles < 25361 > and his first wife had three children, as follows, Kate R. Eiler, born Oct 1873; Edward A. Eiler < 51692> born June 30, 1869; and Daniel W. Eiler born December 3, 1870.

61281 61282 61124

61124 Daniel W. Eiler married Phoebe L. Achenbach 1869-1950 (daughter of Elias Achenbach). Daniel & Phoebe had at least two children, Charles E. Eiler who died Sept. 13, 1896 in childhood, and a daughter Dorothea M. Eiler (1898-1973).. Dorothea Eiler married William J. Garrett (Wm. born about 1897) and they had one daughter named Grace L. Garrett. I previously mailed you a copy of Daniel & Phoebe's marriage information. Daniel W. Eiler died in 1953, and he is buried along with his wife Phoebe and daughter Dorothea at the HAVEN MAUSOLEUM, Schuylkill Haven, Schuylkill County, Pa. 61284 6128

Have a good day, Bruce.

Subject: Adam's children

Morgan,

In response to your email from yesterday:

you wrote

By my records William Eiler (24769) was born 15th Fen 1915 and baptized Mar 2, 1833.

I noticed a possible transposition of information when I looked over your descendency listed of the EY group you emailed me 6/04. With Jacob <24767> Eiler's birth in 1806, how could he have a son William <24769> born in 1815 ? I have William as Jacob's brother, not his son. . Also, all of William's family (wife and children) much be transposed with him to his right place of family order.

. I G I record has William Eiler born 16 Apr., 1815 and baptized 25 Jun 1815*, parents Adam Eiler , Magd. & also verified in the records of St. Paul's Lutrheran Church, Wayne Township, Schuylkill County,Pa.*

also

If William (24769) was baptized (by my records) on Mar 2, 1833 who is the other William. 55483

So Jacob <24767> had BOTH a brother and a son with the name of William Eiler. Yes, I believe Mar., 1833 could be a correct baptism record for Jacob's son William. According to William's newspaper obituary from "THE CALL ", Schuylkill Haven, Pa.(issue) Jan. 14, 1916, he died age 86 and was born in North Manheim Township Oct. 28, 1830, and was survived by his widow and four children. Children; William of Philadelphia, Charles of Reading, Mrs. Oliver Emerich and Mrs. John Frehafer (both of Schuylkill Haven). I also have this about William Eiler and wife Mary ; [redacted] 55483-4

Eiler born about 1893 and married 1. Clara Wagner 2. Amy Wilhelm. (Charles E. Eiler and Amy had children names John Eiler, Miriam Eiler, Nolet Eiler and Elizabeth Eiler.)*

52345 61293 4 5

55485 C. daughter) Sallie Eiler , married to Oliver Emerich. 59754

SAME?

? D. daughter) Sarah Eiler, born about 1857

55487 E. son) William Eiler, born about 1864.

Morgan, I think I've given some obits and marriage records on the above Eiler's previously . They may be in your Schuylkill & Berks county files already.

Please let me know if this clears up about the two William's. I'll try to address the other question later today.
Thanks, Bruce

Subject: comments about Rebecca Wunder

Morgan,
Here's my reply, as promised!

you wrote
You indicate Rebecca Wunder. I show Rebecca Wilson (24770). Was she married twice? Or is there an error here.... Wilson vs Wunder?

I would say Rebecca Wunder was her maiden name as I read instances with other newspaper entries that designated those who were previously married .

The next answer could be dicey. Most of the marriages for the Schuylkill County Eiler's I have compiled two or more complimenting sources for the bride's surname. Not the case for Rebecca , wife of William. Simply, I'm sticking with the surname Wunder as the german newspaper source fits their known location and date range to my satisfaction.

Lastly, to clarify what < EY > update I have been referencing in our emails, it was the one you sent me dated 5/3/2004 !!

Bruce.

Subject: 2 Charles Eiler's and their marriage information

Morgan,

I have more information about Charles Eiler's of Southeastern Pennsylvania:

Charles F. Eiler < 55487 > married Annie Spice < 61243 > in Pennsylvania in 1888. This is filed Berks County Register of Wills, Vol. 4, pag 595

Very good fit, but I lose tracing Sylvester Eiler.....can you rule out Sam Sylvester Eiler <10888>?)

I have 1900 Census for this couple. Charles Iler is from Canada but Lillie and him lived in Michigan. It is said that Charles died in Montana somewhere btw 1901-1908, but I cannot find any records for that. However, Lillie remarried to william H. Whitney (1910 Census) in Michigan. Does anyone know how to find the death/burial info for Charles. Afterall, I haven't seen a state death index that goes back that far and I've already tried Ancestry.com and county websites. Here is what I do have:

Amelia Beacox Iler, widow of Oliver 14526
Posted by: Stefanie (ID 6973) Date: April 18, 2002 at 01:10:12

I am looking for any information and descendents of Oliver Iler, who married Amelia Beacox, (born about 1840) in Seneca County, OH. In the 1880 census, Amelia was a widow in Superior, Williams, Ohio. I think Oliver was significantly older than Amelia and was previously married to Catherine Warrick Listed with Amelia in the 1880 census are children:

Mary ILER
Born:1860at:Ohio
Arletta ILER
Born:1862at:Ohio

I think that this is also possibly a daughter:

Laura H. ILER
Born: at:Ohio
Married:16 May, 1875at: Williams Co, Ohio 14276-7
Spouse:Blair HAGGERTY

Amelia was the daughter of George Beacock/Beacox and Laura Seaton. Some of Amelia's family was in Stark and Fulton Counties, Ohio. Amelia's siblings were Amanda, Leonard, Arletta (m. Brown), Aurilla (m. Murphy), Sophronia (m. Brinkman). Sister Sophronia Beacox Brinkman was also in Superior in the 1880 census with her husband and children.

Does any of this sound familiar? Any connections? I haven't been able to trace any further and I'd love to share some information

I have found Oliver Iler and Catherine Warrick. Married in Seneca Co, Ohio 12 March 1843. Daughter was Hannah E. Iler who married James M. Miller in Lone Rock, WI 10 August 1871. Hannah was born in 1847. She died in 4 April 1875 from complications with childbirth at age 28. My wife is decended from that line. Miller, Hart, Pahl, Roberts.

Of interest is an earlier post to this forum. Ollie M.Iler 1890-1988 Iowa - Gail 4/14/02. Could this be Oliver Iler? I have not found Oliver Iler in Seneca Co except for the marriage. This information I found on LDS Familysearch.org.

Good luck with your research and let me know if interested in the James Miller / Hannah Iler line. She is buried in Lloyd, Richland Co. Wisconsin.

I suspect that Jacob Henry Iler b. 1 apr 1791 and Elizabeth C. Leach b. abt 1792 were the parents of your Henry L. Iler b. 1814. On what evidence do you place Henry L. Iler as the son of Daniel Iler? The 1820 Federal census of Ohio county, KY listed Jacob H. Eylor with 1 boy under the age of 10. I suspect the boy was your Henry L. Iler aged about 6 years.

On census and tax lists these two men seem always to be in the same place. Richard's widow was named executrix of Henry's estate.

Hi there, so glad to see a Henry Iler pop up. Have been looking for help with my Ilers for years. Henry is my 3rd great grandfather. Although I can't tell you for sure who his parents are, I do have his children and marriage info for them. Also in your message you stated that the marriage between Henry and Martha was in Adams Co Missouri? Am I reading that right? I believe it was Adams Co Illinois. There is no Adams Co Missouri.
I was told although can't prove it that Henry's parents were from Virginia, which came with a group from Naussau-Siegen Germany. germanna.org/settlers Thanks

Mary, Sorry I posted message before I was finished here is the rest of it. 16786
The 6th child for Henry and Martha is John Iler b Aug 1850 in Missouri.
I do have a book entitled "Fremont Co Iowa Cemetery Records" which is where I got the info on burials. If you need I can do lookups for you.
Also I understand that Mt Olive Cemetery is also called McKissick Grove.
What is the exciting clue that led you to suspicions of Henry's parents?
Looking forward to hearing from you. Toni

Toni & Mary: Your messages on Henry and Richard Iler are really interesting. I am researching a John Iler who I believe came to Missouri from Virgina through Kentucky to either Missouri then Illinois or vice versa. In your investigations have you come across the names of John Iler or Stephen H. Iler who is my 3rd-great grandfather? I was wondering if Stephen H. might be a brother or uncle of your Henry? Stephen H. was definitely in St. Charles, Mo as of 1829. He married Eleanor Van Burkleo and after her death, Jane Robertson.

Any information you can share would be appreciated.

I am at a stand still with my Henry Iler. I have found no John or Stephen older than Henry. Although my Henry born 1811 named his son John born 1850. The Iler's weave a tangled web indeed. Will keep your name on my list, should I find anything. Toni Sure a lot of children to have died at an early age 7 children in 11 years.

I plan to get to that area this summer and I will hunt the grave sites and take pictures and see that you get a copy of them if you wish.
Keep me posted as to what you find and I will add to the Jacob and Minnie files.

Take Care Roland

Dear Morgan,
These Emails are about an article done on Morris E. Frock, Minnie's son. He was Killed in WWI and the American Legion Post in Hagerstown, Md. is named for him. I also have 2 cousins, Janet + Karen, that are geneologists, too.

Dear Dad,
Thanks so much for all the forwards. How interesting that this man is researching our very branch of the Frock family! Do you think your father's real name was Royal? I never heard that before. I will leave it up to Karen to respond to Kevin Moriarty with most of the information as I know she has all the other family tree stuff, but I will write and introduce myself to him.I am sure Karen will send him all our geneological stuff and give him Roland Frock's email address. Roland is the man who gave Karen, Nancy and I so much good info two years ago. I am going to forward all this to Nancy Oberholtzer, as she has done a lot of family research too. By the way, our new pastor comes from Roland ~~Frock~~ Mackley's church in Emmitsburg, Maryland and knows him and lots of other Frocks from his years there. Small world, isn't it?

I hope you are enjoying the beautiful weather. See you on Saturday. By the way, Laura will be home and will be with us.
Love, Janet

Thank you so much for your reply!

Let me start with an early best wish for a happy birthday for you.

I am getting closer to wrapping this fascinating project up, but some nagging questions remain. So, following below, here are some notes along with the loose ends and queries.

By the way, I have found the cemetery where Jacob and Minnie are buried. There's also a marker there for Maurice (pronounced Morris!), and I will take digital photos and send them to you. I've also been tracking down the various houses that all the Frocks lived in over the years, and have been photographing them along with places where they worked. In the end, this may be best summarized with a map showing locations, routes to work, etc. It is fascinating how the various siblings lived in proximity to each other, and how the family moved whenever someone got a pay raise or a new job.

So, take a look at what follows, and please let me know if you can correct or clarify anything. The finished work will probably be several pages long. Note please that I have some additional information to incorporate from Social Security and also from some obituaries that I have found in recent days.

You really have a wonderful family story here. I hope you don't mind if it is written up for the Hagerstown newspaper. Also, the library, the historic society, and the American Legion who all have been so helpful would like to have complete copies of all this material when I am done.

Frock (born October 30, 1866, died March 9, 1918) and Minnie Collata Eiler Frock (born December 19, 1870, died August 5, 1947) first appear in Census data in 1900, living in Middleburg district of Carroll County, Maryland. At the time, they were ages 34 and 28. Jacob was shown to be a laborer. They had four children living at home. The handwritten enumeration form shows that the youngest at that time was Morris (the first time this misspelling of Maurice appears).   Eventually, Jacob and Minnie had eleven children: Belva, Murray, Iva, Leslie, Maurice, Alvie, Eva, Mable, Royal, Norvel, and Helen. Their years of birth were from 1887 (Belva) to 1912 (Helen). After leaving Carroll County for Hagerstown, the Frocks moved around Hagerstown frequently, from Carrolton Avenue to Jonathan & Church Streets to Belview Street to Fairgound Avenue. The siblings after marriage lived on South Mulberry Street, East Lee Street. (find more from city directories). [note: Minnie died in Philadelphia... perhaps her obit appeared there?]

Apparently the two eldest children, Belva (born 1887) and Murray (born 1891) were not living with their parents at that time. Murray does appear ten years later in the 1910 Census at age 19. Belva appears in her father's obituary as Mrs. John Whitmore.

Here are some summaries of the Maurice's siblings.

Belva Bruce Frock (b. 1887 d. ?) . Married John Whitmore (b.1882 d. ?) Census 1910 shows them living in a rented house at 63 Carrollton Avenue in Hagerstown (only a few doors away from Belva's parents who lived at No. 81), and John was a crater in a furnitureworks. Census 1920 shows them living in a rented house at 653 North Mulberry Street, with one daughter, Olive (b. 1910). By this time, John was a streetcar conductor. In 1929's Hagerstown City Directory, Belva and John had moved to 27 East Lee Street. Olive lived at home with them, and was a stenographer for Leo H. Miller (a law office). By 1935 John was a trainman with Potomac Edison Company. (Continue checking City directories, etc. ... Belva's obit surely will help track Olive)

Murray O (b. 3-12-1891 d. ?) first appears in the 1910 Census at age 19, living with his parents, a laborer in a furnitureworks. Eight years later, Jacob's obituary states that Murray—at age 27—lived at home with his mother at 69 West Church Street. A few months later, Murray is not mentioned in the news reports of Maurice's death though an unnamed brother is mentioned to be with Roessner Bakery. (That could also possibly be Alvie, though two years later Alvie was with the railroad, not a bakery, so this is unclear.) By 1920, Murray was no longer living at home, and does not appear anywhere in the Census of 1920. Recheck Census. Recheck City directories. Murray appears nowhere in cemetery records for Washington, Frederick or Carroll counties in Maryland. After I heard that Minnie's maiden name was Eiler, I looked for any Eiler families in Maryland. Found an Oliver Eiler who had a nine-year old son named Murray (living at 437 West Church Street). Is it peculiar that first cousins would have the same name? Just jumping to conclusions. Murray Eiler went to the naval training center in Rhode Island, where he was counted in the 1910 Census. Can't find him in 1920, and in 1930 he was back in Hagerstown at age 39, living at 855 Summit Avenue, a clerk at the Post Office, married to Leva C. and with a two-year old son named—what else?—Murray. Question is, any chance this is Murray Frock?

Iva Viola (b. 18-5-1893 d. ?) appears in the 1900 Census at age seven, living with her parents in Carroll County. Ten years later the Census of 1910 shows her working as an inspector in a cotton mill. By the time her father's obituary appears in 1918, she was married to Elmer Houck. A few months later, she is not mentioned in the news report of Maurice's death, and the Census of 1920 shows that the only Elmer Houck in Maryland was 47 and living with his sister—Frannie—in Frederick. Being 20 years Iva's senior, it is more likely this would be her father-in-law rather than her widower, since it is possible that Iva could have died by this time. Keep checking City directories, and perhaps her mother's obituary of 1947 will show something. Check cemetery records too.

Leslie W. b. 1896 d. ?) was age four when his name appears in Census 1900. Ten years later at age 14 he was a "machine man" at a table works. When his father's obituary appeared when Leslie was 23, he lived at home with his mother. The news article about Maurice's death shows that at that time Leslie was a barber in the First National Bank building. Census 1920 does not show him in Minnie's house. (Have heard from family that he married Mable Ridenour b ? d ?… recheck city directories, census, etc.) Leslie does not appear in any regional cemetery directories. What about Mable?

Here is some additional information also from an email from Royland:

Looking at the 1930 census for Hagerstown, Md. I found

Frock Myrtle Daughter 30 b. Md. (listed as Widow)
Vernon Gr-son 9 b. Md.
Norman Gr-son 4 b. Md.
By this it look's like Alvie and Myrtle had seperated and she was living at home.

Vernon R was killed in France in WW2, 8 Apr. 1946 and is buried there, Norman M.died 12 June 2001 in Ocala Fl. and buried there.

now have the obituaries of Vernon, Belva, Iva.

Fogle Book - microfilm by Alma Thomas Fogle
"Fogle + Strine families + allied lines of Frederick County, Md. - a genealogy

207

This Genealogy has been compiled for my husband, Guy Blanchard Fogle, (born 1900), his descendants, and other relatives. Research was begun in 1972, and it was planned to complete the book and have it printed by 1974, but due to illness and for other reasons completion has been delayed. I had hoped to have a much more complete genealogy. However, it now seems wise to compile and publish the data on hand rather than to delay the project for additional research.

It was my desire to learn the names of the parents and brothers and sisters of Baltzer Fogle, (born 1800), and the names of those of his 52499 wife, Margaret Wetzel. 52500 I have gathered considerable data on the Fogle-Vogel name from about 1750 to 1825, but have not found positive proof or evidence which of them, or if any of them, were Baltzer's ancestors. The Church Records for St. Peters Lutheran Church, Rocky Hill, just East of Woodsboro, Maryland, show Andreas Vogle, was born July 19, 1727, in Hottenhausen. His parents were Balthasar and Anna Vogle. He married Catharine Bager, daughter of Jacob Bager, in November, 1753. He died July 27, 1786. He had six sons and three daughters, but the Church Records do not identify them. I also wanted to find more information on the Trone, Winebrenner and Young families.

The research for this History has been a very interesting project. I have been fascinated by the area involved, its history, and the people. Genealogical research resembles in some ways the work of a detective or private investigator attempting to solve a crime. Bits and pieces of evidence are put together. In the search of an ancestral line, one small bit of data or tradition may often be a clue to something else.

Every effort has been made to have this genealogy as accurate as possible. However, some discrepancies will be noted, particularly in the recording of dates and the spelling of names of persons and places. Public and Church records have been copied as shown. The spelling of names and places is just as it appeared in the records. The information, although incomplete in many instances, is accurate to the best of my ability.

My sincere thanks to all who have contributed to this project. Special thanks to Mrs. Annie (Fogle) Shankle of Frederick, Maryland, 61449 daughter of Marshall and Jennie Virginia (Renner) Fogle, and to Margaret (Fogle) Gentry of Thurmont, Maryland, daughter of Charles C. 61451 and Daisy (Cover) Fogle, 61452 for the data which they furnished on the Fogle line. Also to Mrs. Cathryn (Fogle) Eaves, 61458 now deceased, of Walkersville, Maryland, for the photograph of Francis Fogle and his wife and children, which was taken at their home in Frederick ca 1896. Mrs. Eaves was also the daughter of Charles C. and Daisy (Cover) Fogle. 61465 The Fogle Family History compiled in 1952 by Marguerite (Fogle) Carter and Cleona (Miller) Fogle has been very helpful. While my husband, Guy, did not do any of the actual research, he supported me wholeheartedly in this project and offered constructive criticism when asked.

EXPLANATORY NOTES

Each descendant is numbered when his, or her, name first appears mong the children of his parents. If he marries and has children, his name appears again in the following generation, bearing the same number, this time as the head of a family. If a name is to be thus repeated there will be a small cross (+) before the name and number when first given.

The personal history of each individual is given when his name appears as the head of a family. The personal history of a child not carried on to the next generation is given when his name first appears.

HISTORICAL INFORMATION

The Fogle, Wetzel, Trone, Strine and Winebrenner families are of German ancestry. The Delaplanes were not German but probably French Huguenot. Among other German pioneer families were Anders, Albaugh, Cronise, Cramer, Eyler, Houck, Markel, Miller, Ramsburg and Wilhide. Some of them fled the Fatherland because of religious and political oppression, while others came to America because of the prospect of providing better for themselves and their families.

Many of the earliest German immigrants arrived in America at Philadelphia and came to the Monocacy Valley area of Maryland from Pennsylvania through York County. They crossed the Susquehannah at Wrights Ferry and followed the Great Warrior's Path or Indian Trail Road which led through the Monocacy Valley. This later was called the Great Wagon Road. Some of them settled along the Monocacy Valley as early as 1730. They were honest, thrifty, hard-working people. They were primarily of the Lutheran and Reformed faith. In the early days they were engaged in farming and in occupations related to farming, such as miller, carpenter, blacksmith, shingle maker, cooper, stone mason, and shoemaker.

The Fogle-Strine ancestors on all lines settled in the Northeastern area of Frederick County. Some of the communities were Woodsboro, Rocky Hill, Legore, Troutville, Oak Hill, Bruceville and New Midway. Others are Rocky Ridge, Millers Bridge, Detour, Keymar and Ladiesburg. Creagerstown and Loys west of the Monocacy River are familiar points.

Frederick County was erected from Prince Georges County by an Act of the Maryland General Assembly on June 11, 1748, effective December 10, 1748. Frederick County was divided on September 6, 1776, creating Washington County on the West and Montgomery County on the South. Carroll County was erected in 1837 from a portion of Eastern Frederick County and Western Baltimore County.

In 1732 the proprietor of the Province of Maryland published inducements to settlers to acquire tracts of land in the Valley of the Monocacy. Daniel Dulaney took a patent for Monocacy Manor, a tract of 8983 acres of the finest land in Maryland. This land was later confiscated by the State because Mr. Dulaney was a Tory.

The town of Woodsborough was laid out in 1786, and comprised about forty acres of the Monocacy Manor tract. Its founder was Col. Joseph Wood, an officer in the American Revolution.

The first German Church in Maryland, about 1730 to 1732, was built of logs, and was located on the bank of the Monocacy River. It is said that the exact location of the church is a matter of dispute. One theory is that it was on a hill above the Old Indian Trail Ford near the village of Monocacy, which village was near the present town of Creagerstown. Others claim it was on the pike to Woodsboro near the Delaplane stone house. The Rev. Heinrich Melchor Muhlenberg visited the old Monocacy Church on June 24, 1747, and wrote Articles of Faith and Fellowship in the Church Records. Among those signing these Articles were Martin Wetzel, John Vogel and Frederick Wilhide.

St. Peters Rocky Hill Lutheran Church, located just East of Woodsboro, was built in 1768 on a lot conveyed by Peter Baird. It was a two-story log structure which was later plastered and weatherboarded. At times this church was used jointly by the Lutheran and Reformed congregations. Many of the Fogle-Strine ancestors worshipped there and are buried in the adjacent cemetery.

St. Johns Church in Woodsboro was also one of the early churches where the Fogle, Strine and allied families worshipped.

Several of the Fogle ancestors worshipped and are buried at Haugh's Mt. Zion Lutheran Church near Ladiesburg. The town of Ladiesbur takes its name from the fact that the community at one time, about 1810, had a total population of seven women and one man.

The farm of William Miller and his son John was on the Monocacy River just opposite the John Jacob Ott farm. The Miller family gave the name to the community of Millers Bridge. John Jacob Ott was an ancestor through his daughter Susannah, who married Joseph Delaplane. Balser Fogle lived at Millers Bridge for more than thirty years. John Miller was of German descent. He came to America with the Cramers, Shanks, Delaplaines, and Woods, the founders of Woodsboro, and others.

In 1780, George Koons, a blacksmith, obtained title to a farm near Double Pipe Creek Bridge, one mile from Middleburg, then in Frederick, now Carroll County. Double Pipe Creek, now Detour, is just over the County line in Carroll County.

A Look at Family Origins:

Where They Came From and How They Arrived in Southwest Virginia

Below is a listing of the major surnames of the Roseberry-Keister family by national origin. Most of these have been traced to the European immigrant although some were deduced from the name (i.e. Duncan is considered Scottish).

The English (and the French)

The English surnames include the families of BURNOP (Westmorland), GODBEY, HANKS (Gloucester), HINDS, HYLTON (or Hilton), KING, MILLS, ROSEBERRY, SUTTON, WHITE and WHITT (or Whit). One interesting family has what appears to be the obviously French name of DAUX but the only mention of the earliest known ancestor refers to Richard Daux of London. This totals 11 families, not including the Daux family.

Only a few of the English immigrants to Virginia are known. Here is how they arrived in southwest Virginia.

Richard Burnop immigrated to Pennsylvania in 1858 but within a few months was in Washington Co., Virginia. If this is correct he probably came down the Great Wagon Trail in the Shenandoah Valley.

Thomas Godbey arrived in Jamestown, Virginia May 23, 1610 making him the earliest of all the Roseberry-Keister families to arrive in America. Thomas' g-g-grandson, John Godby was in southwest Virginia by 1750. The Godbeys are one of the English settlers who worked their way from the Tidewater across Virginia into the Shenandoah Valley.

Thomas Hanks emigrated from Gloucester Co., England to Virginia and was found in Richmond Co., Virginia by 1655. Thomas' g-g-grandson, Joshua Hanks made his way west across Virginia, probably with his father Richard Hanks, all the way into North Carolina where Joshua married. Joshua and his wife, Ruth Bryant, then moved into Grayson County, Virginia and died in Carroll County, Virginia.

The Hylton family appears to have immigrated directly to Virginia before 1699. John Bryant

20 July 2004

Hylton was one of the family to make his way from Goochland Parish, Virginia across the state into what was eventually Floyd County, Virginia.

John Whitt was born in England but by 1670 owned land in Stafford Co., Virginia. Some of his children are found in the records of Charles City County, Virginia. John's son, Richard made his way across the state before dying in North Carolina. Richard also had a son named Richard. Richard Jr. is listed by secondary sources as marrying and have children in southwest Virginia from 1755-1774 but the earliest land record listing him is from 1774.

What these immigrants reflect is the first wave of English settlers in Virginia. Beginning in Jamestown they begin to move inland approximately 50 miles throughout the 17th century. Thomas Godbey's arrival in 1610 on the Deliverance made him one of the earliest Virginia settlers. He survived the Indian massacre of 1622 only to be murdered by a neighbor in 1628 in what can only be called a drunken brawl.

The Scots

There are some Scottish surnames including the families of BANE, DUNCAN, and PATTON. The PATTONS are a particularly interesting family. They are the original Scotch-Irish. From Ferrochie, Fifeshire in Scotland, the Pattons settled in Ireland in the early 17th century during the King James Plantation. Capt. John Patton immigrated to Pennsylvania in about 1730. In 1745 he was the first sheriff of Augusta Co., Virginia making him another to travel to Virginia by way of the Shenandoah Valley.

Mordecai Bane immigrated to America, possibly with his father James, and is found in Chester Co., Pennsylvania in 1705 when he married Naomi Medley. Mordecai's daughter, Mary Jane married James Burke and came to Virginia with him by way of the Shenandoah Valley.

There is no information on when the Duncans immigrated.

The Irish

The Irish surnames include the families of BURK and GLASGOW. James Burke immigrated from Ireland to America between 1720-1725 and is first found in Chester Co., Pennsylvania. He was one of the earliest to come down the Shenandoah Valley into Virginia and later North Carolina. We don't have any information on when the Glasgow family immigrated.

The Germans

The German surnames include the families of ANGSTATT (Alsace), BECK (Wurttemberg), CARPER, FILLENGER, FISCHBACH, FOSTER, HEIMBACH (Nassau-Siegen), HOLTZCLAW (Nassau-Siegen), ILLER, KEISTER (or Kuster) , LONG (or Lang), MORRICLE, OTTERBACH (Nassau-Siegen), SCHREYER, SOLBACH, SONGER (or Zanger), STUELLS (Nassau-Siegen), WEAVER (or Weber), WEDDLE (or Waidele) and WYSOR. Other

Germanic names are the SHUFFLEBARGERS (Switzerland) and the SHELL family. This totals 22 families. Four of these are from the Nassau-Siegen are and were part of the 1714 settling of Germanna in Virginia. Many more German families could be included because of B. C. Holtzclaw's intensive research of the Germanna immigrants. He traced the ancestors of these immigrants back many generations in Germany leading to more surnames which have not been included. The Nassau-Siegen Germans that did not immigrate are not included except for the Stuell family who are personal favorites due to the burning as a witch of one of the earliest known Stuells.

Hans Georg Angstatt immigrated from northern Alsace in 1733 to Pennsylvania. His grandson George Songer traveled into southwest Virginia on the Great Wagon Trail in the Shenandoah Valley.

Elizabeth Beck immigrated to Pennsylvania in about 1754 with her father, Hans Jerg Beck. She married Adam Weiser in 1755 and they also moved into Virginia on the Great Wagon Trail. Adam is found on a 1795 land record in Montgomery County, Virginia but was in Virginia as early as 1765 when he and Elizabeth resided in Frederick County, Virginia.

John Carper's ancestors are unknown but they apparently moved down the Great Wagon Trail. John Carper was born in Frederick County, Virginia and moved south into Montgomery County, Virginia after the Revolutionary War.

Jacob Fillenger was born in Germany, immigrated to Pennsylvania and then moved south down the Shenandoah Valley into southwest Virginia.

The Fischbachs, Heimbachs, Holtzclaws and Otterbachs are part of the Germanna immigrants. This is a special group among the German families, among the few who did not immigrate to Pennsylvania and then later move down the Shenandoah Valley. They and others came from Nassau-Siegen in Germany to Virginia in 1714, the first organized group of German immigrants to land in Virginia. They were brought to Virginia by Governor Spotswood because of their mining expertise. Elizabeth Holtzclaw married John Duncan, Sr. and they moved from Fauquier County, Virginia to Montgomery County, Virginia after the Revolutionary War.

★ John Jacob Iller was a German immigrant. He was born in 1717 and although the date of immigration is not known, by 1742 he was in York County, Pennsylvania. Jacob's daughter, Anna Maria married Benjamin Weddle in Pennsylvania and they moved south down the Shenandoah Valley settling in Montgomery County, Virginia.

your relative

Philip Keister, Sr. was born in app. 1730 in Germany. He immigrated to Philadelphia, Pennsylvania in 1751. He traveled south on the Great Wagon Trail, staying a number in Rockingham County, Virginia before settling in Montgomery County, Virginia in 1800.

Stephen Lang is another German immigrant to Philadelphia, Pennsylvania arriving there in 1738. His son Joseph Long moved down the Shenandoah Valley ending at Tom's Creek (Blacksburg) in Montgomery County, Virginia.

William Morricle, Sr. immigrated in about 1768 but is first found in America in Frederick County, Maryland where he married and had several children. He would have still come down the Shenandoah Valley trail, settling in Montgomery County, Virginia in 1791 in what later became Floyd County, Virginia.

The Songer (Sanger, Zanger) immigrant was Jacob Songer. The date of immigration is unknown but in 1756 in was residing in Berks County, Pennsylvania. Jacob too moved south on the Great Wagon Trail. He settled in Rockingham County. Jacob's son, George, moved further south in Virginia and died in Montgomery County, Virginia.

The details on George Weaver, Sr. (Weber) are sketchy but he was born in about 1747 in Germany, immigrated to Pennsylvania before 1773 and was in Montgomery County, Virginia by 1783 in the area that became Floyd County later.

More details are available on Michael Weddle (Waidele) who was born in 1681 in the Lorraine region of Germany. He immigrated to America and died in York County, Pennsylvania. It was Michael's son, Martin, that came down the Great Wagon Road to southwest Virginia. Martin died in 1783 in Botetourt County, Virginia. Martin's son, Benjamin, is first found in the Montgomery County, Virginia land records in 1790.

Adam Wysor (Weiser) was born in about 1729 in Germany and immigrated to Pennsylvania in 1751. Following the Revolutionary War, Adam Wysor moved south into Virginia, again on the Great Wagon Road. He settled in Montgomery County in an area that later became Pulaski County.

Details are again sketchy on the Shufflebarger family. Secondary sources say John Shufflebarger was born in Switzerland in about 1720. John's son, Jacob, lived in Pennsylvania in 1762 when his son, Elias, was born. By 1800, Jacob Shufflebarger and his family had moved to Montgomery County, Virginia, another Pennsylvania family that entered Virginia by way of the Shenandoah Valley.

The Scots, Irish and Germans reflect the waves of immigrants that arrived in America throughout the 18th century. The Roseberry-Keister family immigrants mostly arrived in Pennsylvania where some lived 15-20 years before immigrating down the Great Indian Warpath which became known as the Great Wagon Road. This path or road was simply the Shenandoah Valley, a convenient way to move south from Pennsylvania. You can follow it today by driving up or down the Virginia portion of I-81.

A Look at the Families

Of the 39 families listed, 56% (22 families) are German, 28% (11 families) are English, 8% (3 families) are Scottish, 5% (2 families) are Irish and 3% (1 family) are French.
